THANK YOU

Thanks for your donation to my Walking Warriors Battling Breast Cancer fundraising campaign. Every three minutes, another woman in the United States is diagnosed with breast cancer. With the help of people like you, we're going to do everything we can to change that statistic.

Your support means a lot to me, and to the millions of people affected by breast cancer.

Dear Friends and Family,

My sincere thanks goes out to those of you who have already donated to my fight against breast cancer! Because of your help, I am making a difference. If you have not yet donated, there is still time. Remember, your donation will go to help women and men living with breast cancer as well as research into a cure.

Consider these statistics:

Every 3 minutes another person is diagnosed with breast cancer.

Every 14 minutes another person dies from breast cancer.

41,000 people will die from my breast cancer this year.

Please support me and my efforts to create a world without breast cancer. The life you help save may be your own or a loved one's. Use the link below to donate, or if you would prefer to write a check, you can make it payable to The Walking Warriors Battling Breast Cancer Walk and send it to me directly.

Dear Friends,

As my Walking Warriors Battling Breast Cancer Walk approaches I'm getting more and more excited! I am training hard and preparing to walk 39.3 miles in two days in the fight against breast cancer! I wanted to send a great big thank you to all of you who have been so generous in your donations! For those of you I have not heard from, I wanted to remind you that I would like to have all of my donations in as soon as possible, so that I can focus on preparing myself mentally and physically for the event.

Not only does your support mean the world to me, but it means a life to thousands of women battling with this disease. So, again, thank you, and I look forward to exceeding my goal!
